2 teachers suspended over midday meal

New Delhi: The Delhi government has ordered suspension of two teachers, a midday meal in-charge and the transfer of a principal and vice-principal of a school in Mukherjee Nagar after several irregularities were found during a surprise inspection. Sanjay Goel, director of directorate of education, conducted a surprise inspection at the Government Boys Senior Secondary School on Wednesday.

“Absent principal and vice-principal, dusty computer labs, watery mid-day meal curries, uncooked rice and dirty school campus were some of the irregularities found during the inspection. I have ordered suspension of two teachers and the mid-day meal in-charge. The principal and vice-principal have been transferred,” Goel said.

Goel was later told that the principal and vice-principal were at the Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights for a hearing. PTI
