

सत्यमेव जयते

Delhi Commission For Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi

5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi 110006

Email: DelhiChildRightsCommission@gmail.com / Helpline- 9311551393

Project Report: Children's Champion Award

Context: Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) is a statutory authority constituted with the goal of promoting the cause of children. Recognising the individuals or institutions who have contributed significantly to the health, education, protection and agency of the children is an important and strong way to promote the cause of the children. Hence, the Delhi Commission For Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) introduced Children's Champion awards.

Categories and eligibility: The Children's Champions awards was conferred in the following 12 categories:

- a. Children: To recognise those children who have shown courage to solve problems of their experiences either at an individual scale or at community level. All the children are eligible for this category.
- b. Politics: For those individuals or institutions who have defined governance and politics and brought focus on the issues of the children. All the elected representatives (former or current) at any level: local bodies, state and national are eligible for consideration under this category.
- c. Jurist: For those individuals or institutions who have used the force of the law for tilting scales of justice in favour of the children. These include judges, advocates, legal scholars or any individual whose contribution has advanced the cause of children's welfare in India using law.
- d. Journalism: For those individuals or institutions whose reporting or writings on children's issues have highlighted the pain, suffering and poor status of implementation of policies and law. These include journalists or reporters working in any newspapers, news channels, news portals, magazines or journals.

सत्यमेव जयते

- e. Education: For those individuals or institutions who have contributed to improving students' learning outcomes, curriculum, pedagogies, assessment patterns, or brought about significant shifts in the schools' education systems. These include any educationists, civil servants, politicians, NGOs, think-tanks, academics, universities/colleges, teachers/principals, or companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in education related work.
- f. Health & Nutrition: For those involved in improving key health and nutrition outcomes for children such as pregnancy care, early childhood care and development, early childhood education, routine immunisation of the children, adolescent health, menstrual hygiene, curbing/delaying child marriage, curative care, palliative care, combating malnutrition, etc. These include medical professionals, NGOs, anganwadi workers or other ICDS staff, ASHA workers or other related staff, think-tanks, researchers, academics, universities/colleges, civil servants, politicians, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in health and nutrition related work.
- g. Child Protection: For those who have contributed significantly to curb violence against children, improve reporting of the crimes against children, represented children in courts or such forums, provided rehabilitative support to children in need of care and protection or conflict with law, running or managing Child Care Institutions, conducted research in the field of child protection improving our understanding, designed policies that have changed children's lives for good, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child protection related work. These include (former or current) Child Welfare Committee Chairpersons/Members, Juvenile Justice Boards, National/State Commissions For Protection of Child Rights, National/State Commissions for Women, National/State Commission Human Rights Commissions, ChildLine or any such helpline, advocates, retired judges, researchers, academics, think-tanks, universities/colleges, NGOs, companies, politicians, activists, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child related work.
- h. Art: For those individuals and institutions that have used art for therapy of the children in need of care and protection, promoted specific issues related to children, helped society reimagine the world, etc. These include film or TV artists, dancers, musicians, singers, organisations that produce contents that help us reflect and introspect, music bands, educators involved in arts, painters, sketchers, actors/actresses, producers, directors, NGOs, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in using arts for children.

सत्यमेव जयते

- i. Academia: For those who have studied, researched and documented the status of implementation of policies, statutes, agreements, treaties, conventions, guidelines and have improved our collective understanding of the children's issues. These include researchers, academics, think-tanks, professors, NGOs, or any other individuals or institutions involved in academic work.
- j. Sports: For those individuals or institutions who have improved facilities, sports infrastructure for children, instituted and implemented policies that have led to greater access of sports for children for recreational or competitive purposes, provided training to the children, used sports as therapy for children in need of care and protection, or any other individuals or institutions involved in sports for children. These include sports professionals, players, coaches, federations, NGOs, think-tanks, advocates, researchers, academics, universities/colleges, civil servants, politicians, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in sports related work for children.
- k. Business: For those who have made basic services accessible to children, used CSR funds for the children's welfare, and have improved children's lives. These include any business operating in India.
- l. Public Service: For those who have used governance as a tool for children's welfare. These include civil servants, politicians, NGOs, advocates, activists, or any other individuals or institutions involved in public service.

Non-Discriminatory Clause: The individuals were recognised only on the basis of their contribution in the field of children's welfare in India and no discrimination on the basis of caste, religion, gender, colour of the skin, geography, sexual orientation and disability, income levels or any such factor were made.

सत्यमेव जयते

Selection Process: The selection process had four stages: nominations, preliminary screening, profile review by the Selection Committee and the final selection by the Grand Jury.

1. Nominations:

- a. Any person can nominate any individual or an institution who has contributed towards the cause of the children regardless of his/her/their caste, colour, creed, religion, sexuality, disability or any other such factor.
- b. The individual or institution can nominate oneself too.
- c. The nominations were invited through a Kobo form available on DCPCR's website home page which is currently closed. The Commission had initially invited nominations till 15th June, 2022 which was further extended to 30th June, 2022. The Public Notice and nomination form are enclosed herewith as Annexure A.
- d. In addition, the following were requested to send the nominations of the individuals these bodies or eminent individuals deem fit for the award. It was noted that these bodies cannot nominate themselves. The following may send their nominations:
 - i. Chief Ministers/Ministers of all the States/Union Territories;
 - ii. Chairperson, National/State Human Rights Commissions;
 - iii. Chairperson, National/State Commissions of Women;
 - iv. Chairperson, State Commissions For Protection of Child Rights
 - v. Chief Secretaries of all the States/Union Territories;
 - vi. Chairperson, National/State Commissions for Scheduled Castes/ Tribes and Minorities;
 - vii. Members of Parliament
 - viii. Members of Legislative Assemblies
 - ix. Secretaries, Department of Women & Child Development/Social Welfare/Department of Education/Department of Health & Family Welfare;
 - x. Retired Supreme/High Court Judges;

सत्यमेव जयते

- xi. Vice-Chancellors/Deans/Directors of National/State Universities or autonomous institutions
- xii. Bharat Ratna Awardees;
- xiii. Padma Awardees;
- xiv. Freedom Fighters;
- xv. Editor-in-Chief of any newspapers, magazines, and/or news channels/ portals.

Extensive Outreach:

Following outreach efforts were made to disseminate information about awards:

- a. Multiple newspaper advertisements were published.
- b. Letters were sent to more than 230 officials / institutions. The list includes:
 - i. State Police Academies
 - ii. State Commission for Protection of Child Rights
 - iii. State Council of Educational Research and Training
 - iv. Chief Secretaries of all states
 - v. Civil Services Training Institutes of various states
 - vi. State minorities Commission of various states
 - vii. State Commission for Backward Classes of various states
 - viii. State Commission for women of various states
 - ix. State Commission for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes of various states
 - x. Sports Councils of various states
 - xi. Medical Council of various states
 - xii. Kala Academies
- c. More than 11700 emails were sent to different individuals such as professors working in different domains in the field of child rights from top tier Universities such University of Delhi, Delhi Technical University, Jamia Millia Islamia, IITs, authors, schools, civil society organisations etc.

Nomination received:

Consequently, a total of 1116 nominations have been received.

Category wise distribution of the nominations is as follows:

- a. Children - 527
- b. Academia-140
- c. Art-99

सत्यमेव जयते

- d. Child Protection -301
- e. Education-524
- f. Health & Nutrition - 269
- g. Public Service -196
- h. Sports-112
- i. Business - 33
- j. Jurist - 42
- k. Politics - 29
- l. Journalism - 38

Selection Committee: 02 committees studied all the nominations and conducted preliminary screening and passed on to the jury with its comments. The Committee comprised of following members:

Selection Committee I

- a. Mr. Rishabh Bansal, Advisor, DCPCR -Convenor
- b. Mr. Alex Paul Menon, IAS, Government of Chhattisgarh
- c. Ms. Gunjan Sharma, Assistant Professor, Ambedkar University
- d. Ms. Madhu Ahluwalia, Sr. Consultant, Quality Council of India
- e. Ms. Romana Shaikh, Chief Program Officer, Kizazi
- f. Mr. Shoikat Roy, Social Impact Project Leader, BCG
- g. Mr. Kuldeep Dantewadia, Co-Founder, Reap Benefit
- h. Mr. Pratik Rajurkar, Co-Founder, Solocl
- i. Mr. Arpit Sharma, Project Manager, DCPCR

Selection Committee II

- a. Mr. Rishabh Bansal, Advisor, DCPCR -Convenor
- b. Dr. Ankit Mogha, CMO, Delhi
- c. Ms. Damini Mainkar, COO, Leadership for Equity
- d. Ms. Neha Raykar, Associate Director, IdInsight
- e. Ms. Priyanka Sharma, Actor and Director
- f. Ms. Anisha Gupta, Alumni Community Creator, Youth Alliance
- g. Ms. Kanika Saraf, Head, Interventions for Child-Oriented Policing, Aangan
- h. Ms. Garima Sharma, Journal Consultant, DCPCR
- i. Mr. Suyash Tripathi, Jr. Consultant, DCPCR

Order of the same is enclosed herewith as Annexure B.

सत्यमेव जयते

Jury: The Jury studied the nominations forwarded by the Selection Committee and they recommended the final Awardee in each Category. The Jury comprises of the following members:

Jury I:

- a. Justice Deepak Gupta, Former Judge, Supreme Court (Chairperson)
- b. Deepak Kumar, Sportsperson, Asian Games Silver Medalist in Shooting
- c. Kanta Singh, Deputy Country Representative, UN Women India
- d. Menaka Guruswamy, Sr. Advocate
- e. Ms. Nidhi Razdan, Journalist, NDTV

Jury II:

- a. Anshu Gupta, CEO, Goonj and Ramon Magsaysay Awardee (Chairperson)
- b. Rohan Verma, CEO, MapMyIndia & Vice-Chair, CII Delhi
- c. Shuchin Bajaj, Founder Ujala Cygnus Hospitals
- d. Sudarshan Suchi, CEO, Save the Children
- e. Vrinda Sarup, IAS Retd., Former Union Education Secretary.

Order of the same is enclosed herewith as Annexure C.

Award: It consisted of the certificate, and Rs. 75,000 cheque.

Total Awardees - 40

Category	Decision by Jury
Journalism	1. Sukrita Baruah for her incisive and sensitive reporting of the cause of children.
Politics	1. Avula Blessy for her contribution in making child friendly panchayats and thus demonstrating child-friendly governance in action.
Public Service	1. P. Vijayan for his initiatives for youth and children to promote holistic growth and development 2. Roshnilla Gurung for her admirable efforts towards establishing a strong child protection ecosystem in her district.

सत्यमेव जयते

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">3. Pulkit Khare for his focused governance to address and combat malnutrition in his district.4. Rukmani Riar Sihag for her notable efforts to re-establish the Anganwadi Centers as the holistic places for child development.
Jurist	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Justice Madan Bhimarao Lokur for his judicial contribution to prioritise the cause of children in need of care and protection and for his advocacy to bring focus on implementation of children friendly statutes such as Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act 2012 and Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act 2015.2. Anant Kumar Asthana for his strategic use of the law to bend the arc of justice towards children, and to amplify, in courtrooms and training halls, the voices of children who need protection of the law.
Education	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Shiksharth Trust for their contribution in reviving and prioritising education under the most challenging circumstances.2. Santulan for their contribution in providing a life of dignity and development to the children of stone quarry workers.3. Shaheen Mistri: for her extraordinary contribution to improving public education in urban India.4. Room to Read India for their wonderful contribution to cultivate love for reading in children by means of their library programme.5. Indus Action Initiatives for their contribution in ensuring access to legislative rights of children from economically weaker sections and disadvantaged groups to study in private schools under Right to Education.

सत्यमेव जयते

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">6. Rajesh Kumar Sharma for providing additional educational support to children from under-resourced backgrounds.7. VidyaGyan for identifying and nurturing students from underprivileged rural backgrounds into future leaders through high-quality education.
Business	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Ankita Gulati for her innovative work towards accelerating the social inclusion of children with visual Impairments.
Children	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Balaknama for their inspiring and educational monthly newsletter being run by street and working children. -2. Muskan AHIRWAR for her amazing efforts towards improving the foundational learning among children in her slum area.3. Harsh for his entrepreneurial idea of creating organic compost using the abandoned wet waste.4. Ansh Varma for his idea of creating low cost computers for children from difficult economic backgrounds.5. Raghvendra Omprakash Yadav for creating leadership potential amongst children in his under-served community.
Sports	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Anthill Creations for making sports facilities accessible to under-served children.2. Mahadev Shinde for his notable efforts in using sports based learning for children with special needs.
Child Protection	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Kriti Bharti for her wonderful work towards rescue and rehabilitation of child marriage victims.2. I-Probono for advocating for quality legal aid and

सत्यमेव जयते

	justice for all, and working to make it a reality. <ol style="list-style-type: none">3. Udayan Care for their three decades of work to improve and shape lives of children from underprivileged backgrounds.4. Gopi Shankar Mohan for their contributions in advocating the rights of infants born with diverse sex and gender characteristics.5. Bharti Ali for her three decades of advocacy, research and demonstrable work to protect children victims of violence, neglect, and abuse.6. Anjali Gopalan for serving children infected with HIV, and for her advocacy work advancing the discourse on identity and sexuality.7. Breakthrough Trust for their commendable efforts in curbing violence and discrimination towards girls.
Art	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Manzil Mystics for their incredible work of using music to improve the lives of children from challenging socio-economic backgrounds.2. Foundation of Arts for Social Change in India for their efforts towards using visual and performing arts to build life skills among children.
Academics	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Dr. Venita Kaul for her academic work in the field of early childhood education and bringing the required focus on early years education.2. Dr. Neelam Sukhramani for her academic pursuit to document, and highlight the pain and suffering of the children of incarcerated parents.
Health & Nutrition	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Lok Nayak Jai Prakash Narayan (LNJP) Hospital for their exemplary service in providing health care to the children during the most difficult circumstances during Covid-19 pandemic.

सत्यमेव जयते

	<ol style="list-style-type: none">2. Mobile Creche for demonstrating that early childhood care and development matters most for the children's growth.3. Delhi Council for Child Welfare (DCCW) for their decades of service to provide home and holistic development to children who are displaced or abandoned.4. Aravind Eye Care for their extraordinary work in improving the eyesight of visually impaired children.5. Dr. Rajesh Sagar for his contribution to improve mental health and well being among children and adolescents.6. Student Welfare Mission for their consistent efforts to provide quality care to the children with special needs.
--	--

Award Ceremony Event:

Venue: Triveni Auditorium, Triveni Kala Sangam, Tansen Marg, Todermal Road Area, Mandi House, Delhi, 110001

Date: 25th March, 2023

Timings: 11:00 AM - 2:30 PM

Live

Streaming

link:

<https://www.youtube.com/live/2ktkuiyfGoE?feature=share>

सत्यमेव जयते

Conferment of Awards

1. Hon'ble Justice P.S. Narasimha (Judge, Supreme Court of India) (Chief Guest)- Conferred the Awards in Jurist, Journalism, Politics and Public Service category, and said, "what made Gandhi Gandhi was his resolve to fight for his right, and against the discrimination he experienced. And this resolve is in us all. We need to channelise it"
2. Hon'ble Justice Dr. S. Muralidhar (Chief Justice, Odisha High Court) (Chief Guest) - Conferred Children's Champion Awards in the categories of Child Protection, Health & Nutrition, Arts and Academics. He congratulated DCPCR for its multi-dimensional approach, and wide ranging categories. He further hoped that the children would confer the next year's awards.
3. Ms. Atishi (Minister of Education and Women & Child Development, Govt of Delhi) (Guest of Honour) - conferred in the categories of Education, Children, Business and Sports. Conferring the Awards, she said, "The road less travelled is often difficult, and full of struggles. She thanked all awardees for taking the road less travelled and making a difference in children's lives"

(B.C. Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

24/5/2023

All Concerned

Annexure - A

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)
Government of NCT of Delhi
5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006
Phone:011-23862685/86 || E mail- delhichildrightscommission@gmail.com

Public Notice

Children's Champion Awards

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/ CPPB/1952

Dated: 25/04/2022

- A. Context: Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) is a statutory authority constituted with the goal of promoting the cause of children. Recognising the individuals or institutions who have contributed significantly to the health, education, protection and agency of the children is an important and strong way to promote the cause of the children. Hence, the Delhi Commission For Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) announces pan India Children's Champion awards.
- B. Categories and eligibility: The Children's Champions awards will be conferred in the following 12 categories:
- 1. Children: To recognise those children who have shown courage to solve problems of their experiences either at an individual scale or at community level. All the children are eligible for this category.
 - 2. Politics: For those individuals or institutions who have defined governance and politics and brought focus on the issues of the children. All the elected representatives (former or current) at any level: local bodies, state and national are eligible for consideration under this category.
 - 3. Jurist: For those individuals or institutions who have used the force of the law for tilting scales of justice in favour of the children. These include judges, advocates, legal scholars or any individual whose contribution has advanced the cause of children's welfare in India using law.
 - 4. Journalism: For those individuals or institutions whose reporting or writings on children's issues have highlighted the pain, suffering and poor status of implementation of policies and law. These include journalists or reporters working in any newspapers, news channels, news portals, magazines or journals.
 - 5. Education: For those individuals or institutions who have contributed to improving students' learning outcomes, curriculum, pedagogies, assessment patterns, or brought about significant shifts in the schools' education systems. These include any educationists, civil servants, politicians, NGOs, think-tanks, academics, universities/colleges, teachers/principals, or companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in education related work.

6. Health & Nutrition: For those involved in improving key health and nutrition outcomes for children such as pregnancy care, early childhood care and development, early childhood education, routine immunisation of the children, adolescent health, menstrual hygiene, curbing/delaying child marriage, curative care, palliative care, combating malnutrition, etc. These include medical professionals, NGOs, anganwadi workers or other ICDS staff, ASHA workers or other related staff, think-tanks, researchers, academics, universities/colleges, civil servants, politicians, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in health and nutrition related work.
7. Child Protection: For those who have contributed significantly to curb violence against children, improve reporting of the crimes against children, represented children in courts or such forums, provided rehabilitative support to children in need of care and protection or conflict with law, running or managing Child Care Institutions, conducted research in the field of child protection improving our understanding, designed policies that have changed children's lives for good, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child protection related work. These include (former or current) Child Welfare Committee Chairpersons/Members, Juvenile Justice Boards, National/State Commissions For Protection of Child Rights, National/State Commissions for Women, National/State Commission Human Rights Commissions, ChildLine or any such helpline, advocates, retired judges, researchers, academics, think-tanks, universities/colleges, NGOs, companies, politicians, activists, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child related work.
8. Art: For those individuals and institutions that have used art for therapy of the children in need of care and protection, promoted specific issues related to children, helped society reimagine the world, etc. These include film or TV artists, dancers, musicians, singers, organisations that produce contents that help us reflect and introspect, music bands, educators involved in arts, painters, sketchers, actors/actresses, producers, directors, NGOs, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in using arts for children.
9. Academia: For those who have studied, researched and documented the status of implementation of policies, statutes, agreements, treaties, conventions, guidelines and have improved our collective understanding of the children's issues. These include researchers, academics, think-tanks, professors, NGOs, or any other individuals or institutions involved in academic work.

- viii. Members of Legislative Assemblies
- ix. Secretaries, Department of Women & Child Development/Social Welfare/Department of Education/Department of Health & Family Welfare;
- x. Retired Supreme/High Court Judges;
- xi. Vice-Chancellors/Deans/Directors of National/State Universities or autonomous institutions
- xii. Bharat Ratna Awardees;
- xiii. Padma Awardees;
- xiv. Freedom Fighters;
- xv. Editor-in-Chief of any newspapers, magazines, and/or news channels/portals.

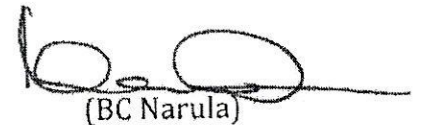

All the nominations shall be studied by a selection committee whose decision shall be final. No queries or objections to the decisions of the selection committee shall be entertained. The selection committee will have eminent people across disciplines.

E. Award: It will comprise certificate, letter, plaque and Rs. 75,000 cheque.

F. Procedure for Submission of Nominations

1. Nominations can be submitted through online form <https://dcpccr.delhi.gov.in/award-nomination-form>
2. All nominations must include supporting material such as documents, social media profiles, reports, news paper articles or anything else that is deemed relevant for nomination.
3. Last date for nominations is 15th June 2022 upto 11:59 PM. Submissions made after the last date shall not be entertained.

G. Contact: For any query, you may email to delhichildrightscommission@gmail.com with the subject "Children's Champion Awards". Please note no nomination shall be accepted through any platform other than online form on the Commission's website.

(BC Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

25/4/2022

Annexure - A

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)
Government of NCT of Delhi
5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006
Phone:011-23862685/86 || E mail- delhichildrightscommission@gmail.com

Children's Champions Awards

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/CPB /6590

Dated: 20/06/2022

- A. Context: Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) is a statutory authority constituted with the goal of promoting the cause of children. Recognising the individuals or institutions who have contributed significantly to the health, education, protection and agency of the children is an important and strong way to promote the cause of the children. Hence, the Delhi Commission For Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) announces pan India Children's Champion awards.
- B. Categories and eligibility: The Children's Champions awards will be conferred in the following 12 categories:
- a. Children: To recognise those children who have shown courage to solve problems of their experiences either at an individual scale or at community level. All the children are eligible for this category.
 - b. Politics: For those individuals or institutions who have defined governance and politics and brought focus on the issues of the children. All the elected representatives (former or current) at any level: local bodies, state and national are eligible for consideration under this category.
 - c. Jurist: For those individuals or institutions who have used the force of the law for tilting scales of justice in favour of the children. These include judges, advocates, legal scholars or any individual whose contribution has advanced the cause of children's welfare in India using law.
 - d. Journalism: For those individuals or institutions whose reporting or writings on children's issues have highlighted the pain, suffering and poor status of implementation of policies and law. These include journalists or reporters working in any newspapers, news channels, news portals, magazines or journals.
 - e. Education: For those individuals or institutions who have contributed to improving students' learning outcomes, curriculum, pedagogies, assessment patterns, or brought about significant shifts in the schools' education systems. These include any educationists, civil servants, politicians, NGOs, think-tanks, academics, universities/colleges, teachers/principals, or companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in education related work.

- f. Health & Nutrition: For those involved in improving key health and nutrition outcomes for children such as pregnancy care, early childhood care and development, early childhood education, routine immunisation of the children, adolescent health, menstrual hygiene, curbing/delaying child marriage, curative care, palliative care, combating malnutrition, etc. These include medical professionals, NGOs, anganwadi workers or other ICDS staff, ASHA workers or other related staff, think-tanks, researchers, academics, universities/colleges, civil servants, politicians, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in health and nutrition related work.
- g. Child Protection: for those who have contributed significantly to curb violence against children, improve reporting of the crimes against children, represented children in courts or such forums, provided rehabilitative support to children in need of care and protection or conflict with law, running or managing Child Care Institutions, conducted research in the field of child protection improving our understanding, designed policies that have changed children's lives for good, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child protection related work. These include (former or current) Child Welfare Committee Chairpersons/Members, Juvenile Justice Boards, National/State Commissions For Protection of Child Rights, National/State Commissions for Women, National/State Commission Human Rights Commissions, ChildLine or any such helpline, advocates, retired judges, researchers, academics, think-tanks, universities/colleges, NGOs, companies, politicians, activists, or any other individuals or institutions involved in child related work.
- h. Art: For those individuals and institutions that have used art for therapy of the children in need of care and protection, promoted specific issues related to children, helped society reimagine the world, etc. These include film or TV artists, dancers, musicians, singers, organisations that produce contents that help us reflect and introspect, music bands, educators involved in arts, painters, sketchers, actors/actresses, producers, directors, NGOs, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in using arts for children.
- i. Academia: For those who have studied, researched and documented the status of implementation of policies, statutes, agreements, treaties, conventions, guidelines and have improved our collective understanding of the children's issues. These include researchers, academics, think-tanks, professors, NGOs, or any other

- Secretary, Department of Women & Child Development
- j. Sports: For those individuals or institutions who have improved facilities, sports infrastructure for children, instituted and implemented policies that have led to greater access of sports for children for recreational or competitive purposes, provided training to the children, used sports as therapy for children in need of care and protection, or any other individuals or institutions involved in sports for children. These include sports professionals, players, coaches, federations, NGOs, think-tanks, advocates, researchers, academics, universities/colleges, civil servants, politicians, companies, or any other individuals or institutions involved in sports related work for children.
 - k. Business: For those who have made basic services accessible to children, used CSR funds for the children's welfare, and have improved children's lives. These include any business operating in India.
 - l. Public Service: For those who have used governance as a tool for children's welfare. These include civil servants, politicians, NGOs, advocates, activists, or any other individuals or institutions involved in public service.
- C. Non-Discriminatory Clause: The individuals shall be recognised only on the basis of their contribution in field of children's welfare in India and shall not make any discrimination on the basis of caste, religion, gender, colour of the skin, geography, sexual orientation and disability, income levels or any such factor.
- D. Nominations Guidelines:
- a. Any person can nominate any individual or an institution who has contributed towards the cause of the children regardless of his/her/their caste, colour, creed, religion, sexuality, disability or any other such factor.
 - b. The individual or institution can nominate oneself too.
 - c. All nominations form should be submitted here: <https://dcpcr.delhi.gov.in/award-nomination-form>
 - d. In addition, the following may send the nominations of the individuals these bodies or eminent individuals deem fit for the award. Let it be noted that these bodies cannot nominate themselves. The following may send the nominations:
 - i. Chief Ministers/Ministers of all the States/Union Territories;
 - ii. Chairperson, National/State Human Rights Commissions;
 - iii. Chairperson, National/State Commissions of Women;
 - iv. Chairperson, State Commissions For Protection of Child Rights
 - v. Chief Secretaries of all the States/Union Territories;
 - vi. Chairperson, National/State Commissions for Scheduled Castes/Tribes and Minorities;
 - vii. Members of Parliament

Children's Champions Award

Details of the person submitting the nomination

Name Name of the person who is submitting the nomination	*
Email ID Email ID of the person who is submitting the nomination	*
Postal Address Address of the individual who is submitting the nomination	*
Pin code	*
Mobile Number Mobile number of the person who is submitting the nomination	*
Who are you nominating? You can nominate yourself or someone else, any organisation / institution <input type="radio"/> Individual <input type="radio"/> Organization/Institution	*

Information of the individual you want to nominate (nominee)

Name of the nominee

Name of the individual who is being nominated

Mobile Number of the nominee

Mobile Number of the individual who is being nominated

Postal Address

Address of the individual who is being nominated

Pin code

Email ID of the nominee

Email ID of the individual who is being nominated

Gender

Gender of the individual who is being nominated

- Male
- Female
- Third Gender

Age

Age of the individual who is being nominated

Information of the organisation / institution you want to nominate

Full name of the organisation / Institution

Name of the organisation / institution who is being nominated

Postal Address of registered / head office

Address of the organisation / institution being nominated

Pin code

Email Id

Email ID of the organisation / institution being nominated

Contact Number

Contact no. of the organisation / institution being nominated

Website of the organisation / institution (if any)

Name of Head of the organisation / institution being nominated

Email Id of Head of the organisation / institution being nominated

Mobile number of Head of the organisation / institution being nominated

Official Social Media Link

Link

Facebook

Instagram

Twitter

*

What are the outcomes and impact of nominee's interventions so far? What change has their efforts brought in the life of people they serve? Why do you think nominee must be awarded? (300 words)

Please write minimum 300 words for successful submission.

Hi

Provide the links to any relevant media clip or news article to support the achievement of the nominee, if any

You can add multiple links here each separated by a comma (,)

Details of Awards/Honours/Recognitions received, if any (attach citation)

Supporting Documents

This can include research papers, studies, reports, reference to legal cases, or anything of such nature

Click here to upload file. (< 5MB)

Any additional information you may want to provide

Does the nominee have any pending legal cases or registered FIRs against them?

- Yes
- No
- I don't know

Please provide details including links of any relevant media clips or news about the case/ adverse remark

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi

5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006Phone:011-23862685/86 Email- dcpcr@hotmail.com

74/c

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/CPFB/1106

Dated: 10/08/2022

ORDER

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR), Govt. of NCT of Delhi is a statutory authority with the goal to promote the cause of the children. The Commission has decided to recognise the individuals and institutions who have made substantial contributions for children's welfare through All India Children's Champion Awards.

Therefore, the Commission is pleased to constitute a Selection Committee with following responsibilities:

1. Evolve criteria / parameters for selection of nominations.
2. Evaluate all the pre-screened nominations for all the 12 categories of award.
3. Seek information/clarification on any information submitted in the nomination form either from the person who submitted nomination or from the nominee directly whenever required.
4. Provide rationale / analysis for nominations evaluated.
5. Recommend for or against consideration by Jury.

The Composition of the Committee is as follows:

1. Mr. Rishabh Bansal, Advisor, DCPCR - Convenor
2. Mr. Alex Paul Menon, IAS, Government of Chhattisgarh
3. Ms. Gunjan Sharma, Assistant Professor, Ambedkar University
4. Ms. Madhu Ahluwalia, Sr. Consultant, Quality Council of India
5. Ms. Romana Shaikh, Chief Program Officer, Kizazi
6. Mr. Shoikat Roy, Social Impact Project Leader, BCG
7. Mr. Kuldeep Dantewadia, Co-Founder, Reap Benefit
8. Mr. Pratik Rajurkar, Co-Founder, Soloocl

10

9. Mr. Arpit Sharma, Project Manager, DCPCR

The Committee shall work for the entire duration of the evaluation phase of awards. Further, each Committee member who is not an employee of the Commission shall be entitled to Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousand) as honorarium for his or her responsibilities as part of the Committee. The honorarium will be processed once the work assigned to the Committee is accomplished. No part honorarium shall be permissible.

This is issued with prior approval of the Competent Authority.

(B.C. Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

10.8.2022

All Committee Members

Copy To:

1. PA to Hon'ble Chairperson, DCPCR
2. Guard file

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi

5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006

Phone:011-23862685/86 Email- dcpcr@hotmail.com

~~523/e~~

~~76/e~~

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/ CPPB/ 13726

Dated: 09/09/2022

ORDER

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR), Govt. of NCT of Delhi is a statutory authority with the goal to promote the cause of the children. The Commission has decided to recognise the individuals and institutions who have made substantial contributions for children's welfare through All India Children's Champion Awards.

Therefore, the Commission is pleased to constitute a Selection Committee with following responsibilities:

1. Evolve criteria / parameters for selection of nominations.
2. Evaluate all the pre-screened nominations for all the 12 categories of award.
3. Seek information/clarification on any information submitted in the nomination form either from the person who submitted nomination or from the nominee directly whenever required.
4. Provide rationale / analysis for nominations evaluated.
5. Recommend for or against consideration by Jury.

The Composition of the Committee is as follows:

1. Mr. Rishabh Bansal, Advisor, DCPCR - Convenor
2. Dr. Ankit Mogha, CMO, Delhi
3. Ms. Damini Mainkar, COO, Leadership for Equity
4. Ms. Neha Raykar, Associate Director, IdInsight
5. Ms. Priyanka Sharma, Actor and Director
6. Ms. Urvashi Wattal, Senior Policy and Training Manager, JPAL
7. Ms. Garima Sharma, Journal Consultant, DCPCR

8. Mr. Suyash Tripathi, Jr. Consultant, DCPCR

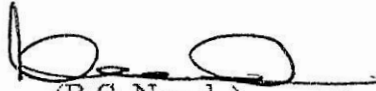

The Committee shall work for the entire duration of the evaluation phase of awards. Further, each Committee member who is not an employee of the Commission shall be entitled to Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousand) as honorarium for his or her responsibilities as part of the Committee. The honorarium will be processed once the work assigned to the Committee is accomplished. No part honorarium shall be permissible.

This is issued with prior approval of the Competent Authority.

All Committee Members

Copy To:

1. PA to Hon'ble Chairperson, DCPCR
2. Guard file

522/c
73/c

(B.C. Narula)
Sr. Consultant, DCPCR
9/9/2022

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi

2nd, 4th & 5th floor, ISBT Building, Kashmere Gate, Delhi -110006

Helpline: 9311551393 | Phone: 011-23862685/86 |

Email: dcpcr@hotmail.com

539/C

72/C

File No. F6(7)/DCPCR/21-22/CPFB/20189

Date: 16.11.2022

Order

This is in reference to the Selection Committee constituted to evaluate nominations received for All India Children's Champion Award. Following two members are appointed to the Selection Committee II:

1. Ms. Anisha Gupta, Youth Alliance
2. Ms. Kanika Saraf, Aangan

The Committee members will perform the following responsibilities:

1. Evolve criteria / parameters for selection of nominations.
2. Evaluate all the pre-screened nominations for all the 12 categories of award.
3. Seek information/clarification on any information submitted in the nomination form either from the person who submitted nomination or from the nominee directly whenever required.
4. Provide rationale / analysis for nominations evaluated.
5. Recommend for or against consideration by Jury.

The Committee members shall work for the entire duration of the evaluation phase of awards. Further, each Committee member who is not an employee of the Commission shall be entitled to Rs. 25,000/- (Twenty Five Thousand) as honorarium for his or her responsibilities as part of the Committee. The honorarium will be processed once the work assigned to the Committee is accomplished. No part honorarium shall be permissible.

This is issued with prior approval of the Competent Authority.

(B.C. Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

16/11/2022

Ms. Anisha Gupta, Youth Alliance <anisha@youthallianceofindia.org>

Ms. Kanika Saraf, Aangan <kanikasaraf@gmail.com>

Copy To:

1. PA to Chairperson, DCPCR
2. Guard File

Annexure - C

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi
5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006
Phone:011-23862685/86 Email- dcpcr@hotmail.com

386/c
78/c

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/CPBP/ 23860

Dated: 05/01/2023

ORDER

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR), Govt. of NCT of Delhi is a statutory authority with the goal to promote the cause of the children. The Commission has decided to recognise the individuals and institutions who have made substantial contributions for children's welfare through All India Children's Champion Awards.

Therefore, the Commission is pleased to constitute a Jury with following responsibilities:

1. Recommend people or institution for conferment of All India Children's Champion Award.
2. Provide rationale / analysis for the awardees.

The Composition of the Jury is as follows:

1. Mr. Anshu Gupta, Goonj CEO, and Ramon Magsaysay Awardee - Chairperson
2. Ms. Vrinda Swarup, IAS Retd., Former Union Education Secretary
3. Mr. Rohan Verma, CEO, MapMyIndia & Vice-Chair, CII Delhi
4. Dr. Shuchin Bajaj, Founder, Ujala Cygnus Hospitals
5. Mr. Sudarshan Suchi, CEO, Save the Children

The Jury shall work for the entire duration of the evaluation phase of awards. Further, each Jury member shall be entitled to Rs. 30,000/- (Thirty Thousand only) as an honorarium for his/her contribution as part of the Jury. The honorarium will be processed once the work assigned to the Committee is accomplished. No part honorarium shall be permissible.

This issues with the prior approval of the Competent Authority.

(B.C. Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

05/01/2023

All Jury Members

Copy To:

1. PA to Chairperson, DCPCR
2. Guard file

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR)

Government of NCT of Delhi

5th Floor, ISBT Building, Kashmiri Gate, Delhi-110006

Phone:011-23862685/86 Email- dcpcr@hotmail.com

585/C
77/C

F6(7)/ DCPCR/21-22/CPBP/ 23861

Dated: 05/01/2023

ORDER

Delhi Commission for Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR), Govt. of NCT of Delhi is a statutory authority with the goal to promote the cause of the children. The Commission has decided to recognise the individuals and institutions who have made substantial contributions for children's welfare through All India Children's Champion Awards.

Therefore, the Commission is pleased to constitute a Jury with following responsibilities:

1. Recommend people or institution for conferment of All India Children's Champion Award.
2. Provide rationale / analysis for the awardees.

The Composition of the Jury is as follows:

1. Justice Deepak Gupta, Retired Judge, Supreme Court - Chairperson
2. Mr. Deepak Kumar, Silver Medalist, Asian Games
3. Ms. Kanta Singh, Deputy Country Representative, UN Women
4. Ms. Menaka Guruswamy, Sr. Advocate
5. Ms. Nidhi Razdan, Journalist, NDTV

The Jury shall work for the entire duration of the evaluation phase of awards. Further, each Jury member shall be entitled to Rs. 30,000/- (Thirty Thousand only) as an honorarium for his/her contribution as part of the Jury. The honorarium will be processed once the work assigned to the Committee is accomplished. No part honorarium shall be permissible.

This issues with the prior approval of the Competent Authority.

(B.C. Narula)

Sr. Consultant, DCPCR

05/01/2023

All Jury Members

Copy To:

1. PA to Chairperson, DCPCR
2. Guard file